The Councilman spoke to the group about different services the Town of Brookhaven provides for seniors like the Jitney Program and Residential Repair Program. Additionally, he stayed after the meeting to do some mobile office hours for the seniors to make sure everything is going well in the community.

Councilman LaValle said, "The seniors of our community have done so much for us over the years and it's imperative that we continue to give back to them. That is why I am out visiting all of our senior groups to make sure they know I am accessible."
